Privacy Notice: All information provided by you will be kept confidential and used solely for processing your request under the Safe Connections Act and the rules thereunder.

Line Separation Request Form

By submitting this form, you hereby affirm that:

- You are at least 18 years old.
- A 'covered act under the Safe Connections Act i.e., domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, sex trafficking and other similar acts has been or allegedly committed against you or against someone who is under your care by the Abuser (i.e., an individual who has committed or allegedly committed a covered act against you or the person who is under your care).
- You are requesting relief from the covered provider under section 345 of the Communications Act and the related FCC rules.

You acknowledge and agree that:

- You (and/or your designated representative) will be contacted to confirm the request.
- You will specify your preferred contact method in the form below (including at least one remote option). This is in case we need to contact you regarding your request.
- We may need to contact the abuser, in connection with the line separation request. However, we will provide you an advance notice using the preferred contact method shared by you before contacting the abuser.
- If we cannot complete the line separation request (due to any operational or technical limitations), we shall inform you promptly (along with the reason why it could not be separated) using your preferred contact method provided in this form.
- You can choose from all commercially available service plans/options for which you are eligible, including any prepaid plans. Our customer services representative may contact you via your preferred contact method to discuss this.
- You may be eligible for lifeline support. Reach Mobile is not part of Lifeline Program. Other service providers may support it. Please click here to learn more about the Lifeline Program
- If the request is made by a designated representative, then we reserve the right to confirm the identity of the designated representative.
- There are no charges, fees or any penalties for separating the line from the mobile services contract with the abuser. However, you will assume financial responsibility for the monthly service costs for the transferred telephone number(s) from the date of the transfer; you may also be charged for the initial month for all the lines on the mobile service contract including that of the abuser, unless ordered otherwise by a court.
- Any previously accrued arrears on an account(or a mobile services contract), following a line separation will stay with the person who was the primary account holder prior to the line separation.
- You are not required to assume financial responsibility for any mobile device(s) associated with the separated lines, unless you purchased the device(s), elect to maintain possession of the device(s), or unless ordered by a court.
